

THE CORCORAN TSIMSHIAN COLLECTION

Title: A Pour Of Rain, Stories From a West Coast Fort
Author: Helen Meilleur
Edition and date of publication: 1980
Publisher and Location of publication: Sono Nis Press, Victoria

Synopsis: Meilleur was born in Port Simpson in 1910 and mixes her own reminiscences with the records of the HBC in this very enjoyable book. It has "Pride of Place" in the Collection. Required reading for anyone from Port Simpson or anyone interested in history on the North Coast. 269 pages.

Wellcome, Henry S., The Story of Metlakatla, (483 pp), 1887.
Henry Wellcome, a wealthy industrialist (Wellcome Labs is still a world famous pharmaceutical company) championed the new settlement in this book published in the year of the move to New Metlakatla in Alaska. This book covers the history from Fort Simpson, the founding of Metlakatla, to the eventual split of William Duncan's utopian community. Lots of information about the "land question" and Tsimshian attempts to get their land claims recognized.

Title: The Story of Metlakatla
Author: Henry S. Wellcome
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1887. Author's Advance Copy
Publisher and Location of publication: Saxon and Co. London and New York
Synopsis: Henry Wellcome, a wealthy industrialist (Wellcome Labs is still a world famous pharmaceutical company) championed the new settlement in this book published in the year of the move to New Metlakatla in Alaska. This book covers the history from Fort Simpson, the founding of Metlakatla, to the eventual split of William Duncan's utopian community. Lots of information about the "land question" and Tsimshian attempts to get their land claims recognized. 483 pages.

Title: Stranger Than Fiction
Author: Reverend J.J. Halcombe
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1877
Publisher and Location of publication: Society For Promoting Christian Knowledge, London
Synopsis: The history of the village of Metlakatla published only 15 years after its founding, including information about Paul Legaix and William Duncan. 275 pages.

Title: Snapshots From the North Pacific
Author: Bishop W. Ridley
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1903
Publisher and Location of publication: Church Missionary Society, London
Synopsis: The Bishop of Caledonia (Anglican) recounts many of his journeys throughout the Northwest, including visits to Metlakatla, New Aiyansh, a canoe trip up the Skeena to Hazelton, and Kitkatla among others. Ridley was the superior of William Duncan and they clashed over Duncan's control of Metlakatla, leading to the eventual splitting of the community in 1887. 192 pages.

Title: Metlakahtla, A True Narrative of the Red Man
Author: George T.B. Davis
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1904
Publisher and Location of publication: Ram's Horn Company, Chicago

Synopsis: William Duncan, Legaix, Clah and others. Lots of black and white photos of the people of Metlakatla. 128 pages.

Title: Challenge the Wilderness
Author: George Tomlinson
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1993

Publisher and Location of publication: Northwest Wilderness Books, Seattle

Synopsis: The life story of the medical missionary Robert Tomlinson (Anglican), a contemporary of William Duncan who arrived on the North Coast in 1867. It includes stops at Metlakatla, the Nass and Skeena Rivers, and the establishment of his mission at Meanskinisht, across the Skeena from present day Cedarvale. A missionary beyond reproach.

Title: Primitive Art
Author: Franz Boas
Edition and date of publication: Second Edition, 1955
Publisher and Location of publication: Dover Publications, New York
Synopsis: Half of this book deals with the art of the Northwest Coast. Lots of illustrations.

Title: Ravens and Prophets
Author: George Woodcock
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1952, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Allen Wingate, London
Synopsis: A travel journal of B.C. including stops at Prince Rupert and Metlakatla in the '50's. 244 pages.

Title: Raven's Cry
Author: Christie Harris, illustrated by Bill Reid
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1966, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Antheneum, New York
Synopsis: This novel about the Haida, teaches their history and customs, using characters living in the pre-contact and contact times. Wilson Duff, Curator of Anthropology at the B.C. Museum vouches for this book's authenticity. 190 pages.

Title: Mist on the River (A novel)
Author: Hubert Evans
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1954, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Copp Clark Press, Toronto
Synopsis: Cy Pitt, a young Gitksan, travels with his mother and sister to work in the canneries at Rupert. A warm novel of a young boy torn between the old ways and the new realities. 282 pages.

Title: The North American Indian, the Complete Portfolio
Author: Edward S. Curtis
Edition and date of publication: Reproduced in 1997
Publisher and Location of publication: Taschen Publishers, New York
Synopsis: Shortly before 1900, Curtis began his 30 year quest. He travelled North America to photograph vanishing traditions of Native North America. He found pure blooded people of over 90 tribes and dressed them in authentic clothing and implements. Nootka and Haida are represented in this book of over 1000 b/w photos.

Title: Thompson's Highway
Author: Alan Twigg
Edition and date of publication: 2006
Publisher and Location of publication: Ronsdale Press, Vancouver
Synopsis: The lives of the explorers who connected the West Coast with the rest of the continent between 1800 and 1850.

Title: Sixteen Years in Indian Country, the Journal of Daniel Harmon
Author: edited by W. Kaye Lamb
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1957, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: MacMillan Company, Toronto

Synopsis: This first reprinting of Harmon's journal, a contemporary of Simon Fraser, follows his canoe trip from Montreal to Fort Fraser and Stuart Lake as an employee of the North West Company (which later merged with the Hudson Bay Company). Lots of great observations about native life in northern B.C. in the early 1800's just after First Contact including the Carrier Chief, Kwah. 268 pages plus map.

Title: History of the Northern Interior of British Columbia, Formerly
New Caledonia
Author: Father A.G. Morice
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1904
Publisher and Location of publication: William Briggs Publishing, Toronto

Synopsis: A scholarly but readable volume by one of the great missionaries (Roman Catholic) of early central B.C. 340 pages.

Title: The Downfall of Temlaham
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1928
Publisher and Location of publication: MacMillian Company, Toronto

Synopsis: A novel based on the facts of the "Skeena Rebellion" of 1888, Barbeau weaves into his interpretation of these events the legends of Temlaham and authentic tribal customs. Kitwancool Jim kills a shaman because he and his wife think the shaman has caused their son's death but now must face white justice rather than the laws of his own people. A warship was sent to Metlakatla during this time in response. 251 pages.

Title: The Downfall of Temlaham
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: Reading Copy, 1973, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: MacMillian Company, Toronto

Title: Pathfinders of the North Pacific
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1958, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Ryerson Press, Caldwell, Ohio

Synopsis: The beginning of the historical period on the North Coast starting with the Russian's hunt for the sea otter and the beginning of the fur trade and ending with the arrival of William Duncan at Fort Simpson and Metlakatla. 224 pages.

Title: Plant Technology of First Peoples in British Columbia
Author: Nancy Turner
Edition and date of publication: 1998
Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver

Title: The Salmon People
Author: Hugh W. McKervill
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1967, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Evergreen Press, Vancouver

Synopsis: The story of Canada's West Coast salmon industry from pre-contact to the cannery era. 187 pages.

Title: McCullagh of Aiyansh
Author: J.W.W. Moeran
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1923
Publisher and Location of publication: Marshall Brothers Publishing, New York

Synopsis: The biography of James McCullagh, Anglican missionary to the Nisga'a of Old and New Aiyansh. 232 pages.

Title: Indians of the Northwest Coast
Author: Pliny Earle Goddard
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1924
Publisher and Location of publication: American Museum of Natural History, New York 162 pages.

Title: The Apostle of Alaska, the Story of William Duncan of Metlakatla
Author: John W. Arctander
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1911, dust jacket from 3rd edition
Publisher and Location of publication: Fleming H. Revell Company, Toronto

Synopsis: William Duncan tried to buy all of the First Editions of this book to destroy them because he did not like the Tsimshians referred to as "savages" by the author in the early chapters describing Fort Simpson so this edition is very rare. 375 pages.

Title: The Apostle of Alaska, the Story of William Duncan of Metlakatla
Author: John W. Arctander
Edition and date of publication: Second Edition, 1911
Publisher and Location of publication: Fleming H. Revell Company, Toronto

Title: British Columbia Prehistory
Author: Knut R. Fladmark
Edition and date of publication: 1986
Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Canada

Title: People of the Robin, The Tsimshian of Kitsumkalum
Author: James Andrew McDonald
Edition and date of publication: 2003
Publisher and Location of publication: Kitsumkalum Education Committee

Title: Indians of the North Pacific Coast
Author: Tom McFeat
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, paperback, 1966
Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press, Seattle

Title: The Skeena, River of Destiny
Author: Dr. R. Geddes Large
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1957, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Mitchell Press Limited, Vancouver

Synopsis: The story of the First Nations, the development of the Skeena Valley, the Collins Overland Telegraph, the era of the steamboats and the completion of the Grand Trunk Railway are all covered in this book. 172 pages.

Title: The Skeena, River of Destiny
Author: Dr. R. Geddes Large
Edition and date of publication: Reading copy, Sixth Edition, 1996
Publisher and Location of publication: Mitchell Press Limited, Vancouver

Title: Drums and Scalpels. From Native Healers to Physicians on the North Pacific Coast,
Author: Dr. R. Geddes Large
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1966, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Mitchell Press Limited, Vancouver

Synopsis: Includes a chapter on Port Simpson and Dr. Bolton. 140 pages. 1069 pages.

Title: Handbook of American Indian Languages (including Tsimshian)
Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 40, Part 1
Author: Franz Boas
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1911
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington Synopsis:

Synopsis: Over 140 pages of Tsimshian grammar and syntax collected at the turn of the century. 1069 pages.

Title: Publications of the Jessup North Pacific Expedition.
1. Kwakiutl Texts
Author: Franz Boas and George Hunt
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1902
Publisher and Location of publication: American Museum of Natural History, New York

Synopsis: Collected from 1895 to 1900, this book contains Kwakiutl legends and texts in both the English and Kwakiutl languages. 270 pages.

Title: Publications of the Jessup North Pacific Expedition.
Kwakiutl Texts. Contained in the Memoirs of the American Museum of Natural History, Whole Series, Volume 5, Issue 2
Author: Franz Boas and George Hunt
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1902
Publisher and Location of publication: American Museum of Natural History, New York

Synopsis: Part II of Kwakiutl legends and texts in both the English and Kwakiutl languages. Pages 271-402.

Title: Clam Gardens. Aboriginal Mariculture on Canada's West Coast
Author: Judith Williams
Edition and date of publication: 2006
Publisher and Location of publication: Transmontanus and New Star Books, Vancouver

Title: The Journal of John Work, January to October, 1835
Author: John Work with an introduction by Henry Drummond Dee
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1945

Publisher and Location of publication: Archives of British Columbia, Victoria

Synopsis: John Work was the first Chief Factor of the Hudson Bay trading post at Fort Simpson. This journal details daily life and trading one year after the post was opened. A wealth of information about the various First Nations at that time. Lots of examples of First Nations' trading. 98 pages.

Title: Archeological Survey on the Northern Northwest Coast
Author: Phillip Drucker
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1943
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.

Synopsis: Includes chapters about early archeological digs in the Prince Rupert area and the North Coast. 142 pages.

Title: Cultures of the North Pacific Coast
Author: Phillip Drucker
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1965
Publisher and Location of publication: Harper and Row, New York, 231 pages.

Title: Indians of the Northwest Coast
Author: Phillip Drucker
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1955, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: McGraw Hill, New York, 193 pages.

Title: British Columbia Place Names 1592-1906
Author: Captain John Walbran
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1909
Publisher and Location of publication: Government Printing Bureau, Ottawa

Synopsis: A First Edition of a book that is still in print, this book is a must-have for anyone cruising the B.C. Coast. Lots of pre-contact and post-contact history. 546 pages.

Title: The Tsimshian, Images of the Past; Views For the Present
Author: edited by Margaret Seguin
Edition and date of publication: 1984
Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver

Title: The Native Tribes of British Columbia
Author: Alice Ravenhill
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1938
Publisher and Location of publication: Queen's Printer, Victoria, 140 pages.

Title: Haida Texts and Myths. Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 29
Author: Recorded by John Swanton
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1905
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington

Synopsis: 450 pages of Haida Myths collected in 1900 in both English and Haida.

Title: The Coast Indians of Southern Alaska and Northern British Columbia.
Author: Albert P. Niblack, ensign U.S. Navy
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1890
Publisher and Location of publication: Government Printing Office, Washington

Synopsis: Personal observations of the writer from 1885-1887 as well as analysis of the collection in the National Museum. Lots of photographs and an extensive text. 386 pages plus map.

Title: Cedar
Author: Hillary Stewart
Edition and date of publication: 1984, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: D.W. Friesen and Sons, Vancouver

Title: Indian Fishing. Early Methods on the Northwest Coast
Author: Hillary Stewart
Edition and date of publication: 1977, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: J.J. Douglas Ltd, Vancouver

Title: Indian Fishing. Early Methods on the Northwest Coast
Author: Hillary Stewart
Edition and date of publication: 1977 Reading Copy
Publisher and Location of publication: J.J. Douglas Ltd, Vancouver

Title: The Black Canoe. Bill Reid and the Spirit of Haida Gwaii
Author: Robert Bringhurst
Edition and date of publication: 1991
Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas and McIntyre, Vancouver

Title: Those Born At Koon
Author: John and Carolyn Smyly
Edition and date of publication: Sixth Edition 1994
Publisher and Location of publication: Hancock House, Surrey

Title: The Gitselasu: The People of the Kitselas Canyon
Author: Rocque Berthiaume
Edition and date of publication: 1999
Publisher and Location of publication: First Nations Education Centre, Coast Mountains School District

Title: Visitors Who Never Left. The Origin of the People of Damelahamid
Author: Translated by Chief Kenneth B. Harris
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1974
Publisher and Location of publication: University of British Columbia Press, Vancouver

Synopsis: Myths and stories of the Gitskan including the Feast of the Mountain Goats. 138 pages.

Title: Indian Myths and Legends From the North Pacific Coast of America
Author: A translation of Franz Boas's 1895 Edition
Edition and date of publication: 2002, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Talonbooks, Vancouver

Title: Alaska, and Missions on the North Pacific Coast
Author: Reverend Sheldon Jackson
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1880
Publisher and Location of publication: Dodd, Mead and Co., New York

Synopsis: Although the Reverend has an at times harsh view of the First Nations, he visits all of the missions including Metlakatla and Fort Simpson in the 1870's. 327 pages.

Title: Indians of the Pacific Northwest
Author: Ruth Underhill
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1944
Publisher and Location of publication: Education Division of the U.S. Office of Indian Affairs, 232 pages.

Title: Artifacts of the Northwest Coast Indians
Author: Hillary Stewart
Edition and date of publication: 1973, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Hancock House Publishers, Saanichton, B.C.

Title: Vancouver's Voyage
Author: James Stirrat Marshall and Carrie Marshall
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1955, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Mitchell Press Ltd., Vancouver, 200 pages.

Title: Indian Primitive, Northwest Coast Indians of the Former Days
Author: Ralph W. Andrews
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1960, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Bonanza Books, New York

Synopsis: Indian Primitive covers the coast from Klamath to Tlingit with lots of b/w photos, many by Edward S. Curtis. The Tsimshian are included in chapters called, "Columns and Crests" and "Eulachon Supplied Nourishing Oil". 170 pages.

Title: Mr. Menzie's Garden Legacy, Plant Collecting on the Northwest Coast
Author: Clive L. Justice
Edition and date of publication: 2000
Publisher and Location of publication: Gordon Soules Book Publishers, West Vancouver

Title: Peoples of the Sea Wind, The Native Americans of the Pacific Coast
Author: Vinson Brown
Edition and date of publication: 1977
Publisher and Location of publication: Collier Macmillan Publishing, New York, 254 pages.

Title: Canoes and Kayaks of Western America
Author: Bill Durham
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1960
Publisher and Location of publication: Copper Canoe Press, Seattle

Synopsis: A chapter on Northwest Coast canoes among others. 103 pages.

Title: Tsimsyan Myths Illustrated
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1961
Publisher and Location of publication: Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources

Synopsis: Collected by William Beynon in Port Simpson in 1915. 97 pages.

Title: Looking At Indian Art of the Northwest Coast
Author: Hillary Stewart
Edition and date of publication: 1979
Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas and McIntyre, Vancouver

Title: The Indian History of British Columbia. Volume 1: The Impact of the White Man
Author: Wilson Duff
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1964
Publisher and Location of publication: Provincial Museum of British Columbia, Victoria

Title: Medicine Men on the North Pacific Coast
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1958
Publisher and Location of publication: Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources.

Synopsis: A great chapter entitled, "The Career of a Medicine Man, according to Isaac Tens, a Gitskan" in which he describes how he became a shaman. Lots of photos of artifacts and examples of argillite carving for the tourist trade. 95 pages.

Title: Recording Their Story, James Teit and the Tahltan.
Author: Judy Thompson
Edition and date of publication: 2007, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Canadian Museum of Civilization, Ottawa

Synopsis: The ethnology of the Tahltan First Nation collected at the turn of the century.

Title: First Invaders. The Literary Origins of British Columbia
Author: Alan Twigg
Edition and date of publication: 2004
Publisher and Location of publication: Ronsdale Press, Vancouver

Title: Tales the Totems Tell
Author: Hugh Weatherby
Edition and date of publication: Seventh Edition, 1966, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Macmillan Company of Canada, Toronto

Synopsis: A young adult's book containing a retelling of some native myths of the coast including the Mountain Goats of Temlaham. 98 pages.

Title: Persistence and Change, A History of the Ts'msyen Nation
Author: Kenneth Campbell
Edition and date of publication: 2005
Publisher and Location of publication: First Nations Education Services, S.D. 52, Prince Rupert

Title: The Dig
Author: George MacDonald and Richard Inglis
Edition and date of publication: 1976
Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Man, Ottawa

Synopsis: A good overview of the archeological history of Metlakatla and the Prince Rupert area and the Coast Tsimshian. 82 pages.

Title: The History of the Pacific States. Volume XXVII British Columbia 1792-1887
Author: Hubert H. Bancroft
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1887
Publisher and Location of publication: The History Company, Publishers, San Francisco

Synopsis: Although short on the First Nations of B.C., it is to be remembered that Bancroft completed his voluminous encyclopedia of what I call the History of Everywhere from books in his immense library. His library was so big, it later became the San Francisco Library. 792 pages.

Title: Salmonberry Blossoms in the New Year, Some Culturally Significant Plants of the Haisla known to occur within the Greater Kitlope Ecosystem.
Author: Alison Davis with Beatrice Wilson
Edition and date of publication: 1995
Publisher and Location of publication: Nana-kila Institute, Kitamaat Village

Title: Aboriginal Plant Uses in Canada's Northwest Boreal Forest
Author: Marles, Clavell, Monteleone, Tays, and Burns
Edition and date of publication: 2000
Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver

Title: Songhees Pictorial. A History of the Songhees People as seen by Outsiders, 1790-1912
Author: Grant Keddie
Edition and date of publication: 2003
Publisher and Location of publication: Royal B.C. Museum, Victoria

Title: Tlingit Myths and Texts. Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 39
Author: Recorded by John Swanton
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1909
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington

Synopsis: Over 400 pages of Tlingit stories in both English and Tlingit collected in Sitka, Alaska. 451 pages.

Title: Tsimshian Mythology. 31st Annual Report of the Bureau of American Ethnology, 1909-10
Author: By Franz Boas, based on texts recorded by Henry W. Tate
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1916
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington

Synopsis: Written down by Henry Tate in Port Simpson over a period of 12 years ending with his death in 1914. Over 500 pages of Tsimshian myths and stories accompanied by another 500 pages of comparative mythology between tribes of the coast. Total 1037 pages.

Title: The Relationship Systems of the Tlingit, Haida, and Tsimshian
Author: Theresa Durlach
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1928

Publisher and Location of publication: American Ethnologist Society, New York
Synopsis: 177 pages.

Title: The Tsimshian, Their Arts and Music. American Ethnology Society Publications
Author: Barbeau, Garfield, Wingert
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1951
Publisher and Location of publication: J. J. Augustin, Publisher, New York
Synopsis: 290 pages.

Title: Tsimshian Texts. Bureau of American Ethnology, Bulletin 27
Author: Recorded by Franz Boas
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1902
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington
Synopsis: Collected at Kincolith in 1894, 244 pages of Tsimshian legends printed in both English and Tsimshian.

Title: The Porcupine Hunter and Other Stories. The Original Tsimshian Texts of Henry Tate
Author: Ralph Maud
Edition and date of publication: 1993
Publisher and Location of publication: Talonbooks, Vancouver
Synopsis: When collecting and writing texts and myths for the 1916 Tsimshian Texts book by Boas, Henry Tate had a copy of the 1902 Tsimshian Texts (Bulletin 27) and rewrote some of those for the later edition.

Title: Tsimshian Narratives 1. Tricksters, Shamans, and Heroes
Author: Collected by Marius Barbeau and William Beynon, edited by John Cove and George MacDonald
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1976
Publisher and Location of publication: Canadian Museum of Civilization, Ottawa

Synopsis: 340 pages of Tsimshian stories and legends.

Title: Tsimshian Narratives 2. Trade and Warfare
Author: Collected by Marius Barbeau and William Beynon, edited by John Cove and George MacDonald
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1976
Publisher and Location of publication: Canadian Museum of Civilization, Ottawa

Synopsis: Another 240 pages of Tsimshian stories and legends.

Title: Haida Songs, Tsimshian Texts. (New Series) Bureau of American Ethnology Society. Volume III
Author: Recorded by John Swanton and Franz Boas respectively
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1912
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington

Synopsis: Tsimshian Texts: Written down by Henry Tate in Port Simpson. Stories include Asdi-wa-l; or The Meeting on the Ice, the Story of Gunaxnesemgad, and Gauo in both English and Tsimshian. 180 pages.

Haida Songs: 60 pages of songs in both English and Haida. Total 284 pages plus glossary.

Title: Tsimshian Texts. (New Series) Bureau of American Ethnology Society. Volume III
Author: Recorded by Franz Boas
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1912
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington

Note: This is a second copy of the same work as above, containing only the Tsimshian Texts. i.e. without the Haida Songs section.

Synopsis: Written down by Henry Tate in Port Simpson. Stories include Asdi-wa-l; or The Meeting on the Ice, the Story of Gunaxnesemgad, and Gauo in both English and Tsimshian. 180 pages.

Title: Tsimshian Clan and Society
Author: Viola Garfield
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1939
Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington, Seattle

Synopsis: The author and William Beynon's fieldwork in 1932, 1935, and 1937 at Port Simpson among the Tsimshian Tribes. Kinships, other relationships, feasts, events, and lots of history. 330 pages.

Title: Up and Down the North Pacific Coast by Canoe and Mission Ship
Author: Reverend Thomas Crosby
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1914
Publisher and Location of publication: The Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Toronto

Synopsis: An overly optimistic view of a life time of an heroic missionary centered in Port Simpson. 403 pages.

Title: Among the An-ko-me-nums
Author: Reverend Thomas Crosby
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1907
Publisher and Location of publication: William Briggs, Toronto

Synopsis: The missionary's work in the Fraser Valley before moving to Fort Simpson. 243 pages.

Title: From Potlatch to Pulpit. Being the Autobiography of Rev. Pierce, Native Missionary to the Indian Tribes of the Northwest Coast of British Columbia.
Author: William Henry Pierce
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1933
Publisher and Location of publication: Vancouver Bindery Limited, Vancouver

Synopsis: William Henry Pierce was born in 1846 to a white father and a Tsimshian mother, raised by a non-English speaking Tsimshian grandmother and then educated by William Duncan and in Thomas Crosby's school. 176 pages.

Title: The Art of the Totem
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: Second Edition, 1989
Publisher and Location of publication: Hancock House, Surrey

Title: Totem Poles of the Gitskan, Upper Skeena River
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1929
Publisher and Location of publication: King's Printer, Ottawa
Synopsis: 275 pages.

Title: Totem Poles Volume 1. (According to Crests and Topics)
Author: Marius Barbeau

Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1950
Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Canada, Ottawa
Synopsis: 433 pages.

Title: Totem Poles Volume 2. (According to Location)
Author: Marius Barbeau
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1950
Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Canada, Ottawa
Synopsis: Volume 1 cross-referenced by location. 447 pages.

Title: Sea Otter Chiefs
Author: Michael Robinson
Edition and date of publication: 1996, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Bayeux Arts Inc., Calgary

Synopsis: The lives and history of 3 of B.C.'s Superchiefs, Cuneah of the Haida, Maquinna at Nootka, and the lineage and story of all 4 Legaix's of the Coast Tsimshian. 94 pages.

Title: Ethnology of the Kwakiult. 35th Annual Report of the Bureau of American Ethnology. Part 1
Author: By Franz Boas, based on data collected by George Hunt
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1921
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington

Synopsis: Over 200 pages of tool making and use, collection of food and another 400 pages of Coastal First Nations' recipes in both English and Kwakiutl. 794 pages.

Title: Ethnology of the Kwakiult. 35th Annual Report of the Bureau of American Ethnology. Part 2
Author: By Franz Boas, based on data collected by George Hunt
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1921
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington

Synopsis: 684 pages of mid-coast family history and as well as a large section of Kwakiutl songs in both English and Kwakiutl.

Title: In the Wake of the War Canoe. A Stirring Record of Forty Years' Successful Labour, Peril, & Adventure Amongst the Savage Indian Tribes of the Pacific Coast, and the Piratical Headhunting Haidas of the Queen Charlotte Islands, B.C.
Author: William Henry Collison
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1915, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Seeley, Service, and Co., London

Synopsis: The autobiography of the Anglican missionary, William Collison the first to minister to the Haida. Contemporary of Duncan, Tomlinson, and Crosby.

Title: In the Wake of the War Canoe. A Stirring Record of Forty Years' Successful Labour, Peril, & Adventure Amongst the Savage Indian Tribes of the Pacific Coast, and the Piratical Headhunting Haidas of the Queen Charlotte Islands, B.C.
Author: William Henry Collison
Edition and date of publication: 1981, Reading copy
Publisher and Location of publication: Sono Nis Press, Victoria
Synopsis: 352 pages.

Title: Warriors of the North Pacific. Missionary Accounts of the Northwest Coast, the Skeena and Stikine Rivers and the Klondike, 1829-1900
Author: Edited and annotated by Charles Lillard
Edition and date of publication: 1984, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Sono Nis Press, Victoria

Title: Good Intentions Gone Awry. Emma Crosby and the Methodist Mission on the Northwest Coast.
Author: Jan Hare and Jean Barman
Edition and date of publication: 2006
Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver

Title: White Slaves of Maquinna. John R. Jewitt's Narrative of Capture and Confinement at Nootka
Author: John Jewitt
Edition and date of publication: 2000
Publisher and Location of publication: Heritage House Publishing, Surrey

Title: Notes From the Century Before. A Journal From British Columbia
Author: Edward Hoagland
Edition and date of publication: 1982
Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas and McIntyre, Vancouver

Title: Indian Lives and Legends
Author: Mildred Valley Thornton
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1966, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Mitchell Press, Vancouver

Synopsis: Short vignettes of 50 chiefs and other First Nations of importance and interest along the B.C. Coast. Includes Tsimshian Chief Billy Williams and the chief of Kitwancool, Amos Williams, among others. 301 pages.

Title: Men of Medeek
Author: Will Robinson as told to Walter Wright
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1962
Publisher and Location of publication: Northern Sentinel Press, Kitimat

Synopsis: The history of the people of the canyon, the Kitselas. World class literature from the first page to the last. 93 pages.

Title: Men of M'deek and Wars of M'deek
Author: Will Robinson as told to Walter Wright
Edition and date of publication: 2003
Publisher and Location of publication: Kitselas Band Council

Synopsis: As above, but includes the Wars of M'deek and the military struggle with Legaix and the Coast Tsimshian. 246 pages.

Title: Tales of Kitamaat

Author: Gordon Robinson
Edition and date of publication: Sixth Edition, 1975
Publisher and Location of publication: Northern Sentinel Press, Kitimat.

Synopsis: Over 20 legends, stories, and history of the Haisla both pre and post contact. 46 pages.

Title: Food Plants of Coastal First Peoples
Author: Nancy Turner
Edition and date of publication: 1995
Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver

Title: Huldowget, A Story of the North Pacific Coast (a novel)
Author: B.A. McKelvie
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1926
Publisher and Location of publication: J.M. Dent and Sons, Toronto

Synopsis: A novel with at least some basis in fact including "trial by mouse", it is set between two locations which resemble Fort Simpson and Port Essington. 221 pages.

Title: Witch Doctor (A novel)
Author: N.C. McDonald
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1959
Publisher and Location of publication: Ballantine Books, New York

Synopsis: A paperback for young readers, a slave girl at the time of first contact is actually a Haida princess who outwits the shaman and his tribe to win her freedom. 142 pages.

Title: Shaman (A novel, formerly published as Witch Doctor. See above)
Author: N.C. McDonald
Edition and date of publication: Second printing, 1972
Publisher and Location of publication: Ballantine Books, New York

Title: Fish the Strong Waters (A novel)
Author: N.C. McDonald
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1957
Publisher and Location of publication: Ballantine Books, New York

Synopsis: A story of Southeast Alaska at the turn of the century, when white men and Indians worked the wild rivers together for a fortune in salmon. A great read for a Northwest coast fisherman. 184 pages.

Title: Song of the Axe (A novel)
Author: N.C. McDonald
Edition and date of publication: Second Edition, 1972
Publisher and Location of publication: Ballantine Books, New York

Synopsis: Intrigue and mystery in the hand-logging industry of the Pacific Northwest. 190 pages.

Title: Mission to Metlakatla
Author: Elaine Wentworth
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1968, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Houghton Mifflin Company, Boston

Synopsis: A readable summary of Fort Simpson, Metlakatla and William Duncan researched using mainly secondary sources including The Apostle of Alaska by Arctander. 194 pages.

Title: Tsimshian Treasures, The Remarkable Journey of the Dundas Collection.
Author: Donald Ellis, editor
Edition and date of publication: 2007, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas and McIntyre Ltd, Vancouver
Synopsis: Great coffee table book with nice photographic images of the entire collection with commentary. 142 pages.

Title: Miracle at Metlakatla, The Inspiring Story of William Duncan, a Missionary
Author: Margaret Poynter
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1978
Publisher and Location of publication: Concordia Publishing House, St. Louis

Synopsis: A readable summary of the story of Duncan and Metlakatla similar to Mission to Metlakatla in that it is based on earlier books including The Apostle of Alaska by Arctander. This book is part of a Christian "Greatness in Faith" series. 123 pages.

Title: Metlakahtla and the North Pacific Mission of the Church Missionary Society
Author: Eugene Stock
Edition and date of publication: Reprint of a book first published in 1880
Publisher and Location of publication: Booksurge, South Carolina

Synopsis: The story of Fort Simpson, Metlakatla, and William Duncan published 18 years after the founding. 150 pages

Title: The Wolf and the Raven
Author: Viola Garfield and Linn Forrest
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1948, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press, Seattle

Synopsis: A very extensive and well done book of Tlingit tales and legends relating to the totem pole collections in South East Alaska by one of the experts, Viola Garfield. 151 pages

Title: Tsimshian, British Columbia Heritage Series, Our Native Peoples
Author: Dept. of Education
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1971
Publisher and Location of publication: Province of British Columbia,

Synopsis: A good overview of many aspects of Tsimshian life and culture. 61 pages

Title: The Devil and Mr. Duncan, A History of the Two Metlakatlas
Author: Peter Murray
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1985, dust jacket
Publisher and Location of publication: Sono Nis Press, Victoria

Synopsis: The definitive book about William Duncan by an author whose two primary resources were Duncan's own journals, writings, notebooks, financial records and his correspondence stored in Metlakatla, Alaska and the massive Henry Wellcome Collection of Duncan-related papers and documents in Seattle. Other books about the two Metlakatlas use Arctander's and Wellcome's books as their primary source. 341 pages.

Title: Return of the Canoe Societies, A Literary History of the First Nations' Coastal Tribes of B.C.
Author: Rosemary Patterson
Edition and date of publication: 1999
Publisher and Location of publication: Xlibris

Synopsis: A novel for young readers. On a canoe journey to Bella Bella, supernatural Raven takes the main characters through time to reveal the history of the Coastal F.N.'s, land claims, residential schools and even visits Metlakatla in the 1880's. This book deals with tough issues of the past and present and is respectfully written. 168 pages.

Title: Metlakahtla, The Holy City!
Author: Phylis Bowman
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1983
Publisher and Location of publication: Sunrise Printing, Chilliwack

Synopsis: A good summary of Old Metlakatla and New Metlakatla although the information is mostly gleaned from Arctander's and Wellcome's books. 160 pages including 51 full pages of black and white photos.

Title: Marsden of Alaska, A Modern Indian
Author: William Beattie
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1935
Publisher and Location of publication: Vantage Press, New York

Synopsis: The biography of the Metlakatlan full-blood Tsimshian, a contemporary of Duncan who became the first Alaskan native to become an ordained minister (Presbyterian), and to graduate with an advanced degree. Edward Marsden, in addition to being ordained, became a missionary, musician, engineer, boat builder and church builder. 246 pages.

Title: Thomas Crosby and the Tsimshian. Small Shoes for Feet Too Large
Author: Clarence Bolt
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1992
Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver

Synopsis: Crosby was invited to Port Simpson by the Tsimshian to help them convert to a modern lifestyle and to help their land claims. Lots of information about the land issue from 1874 onwards. 163 pages.

Title: An Apostle of the North, Memoirs of Bishop William Bompas
Author: H.A. Cody
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1908
Publisher and Location of publication: Seeley and Co. Limited, London

Synopsis: The Anglican Bishop Bompas was sent to Athabasca and the Yukon in 1874 by the Church Missionary Society, the same group that sent William Duncan to Fort Simpson and Metlakatla. Bompas spent 5 months in Metlakatla trying to resolve (unsuccessfully) the disputes between Bishop Ridley and Duncan. This is less of a book about the mission than a great travel book about Bompas' journeys. Lots of archival photos. 386 pages.

Title: Where People Feast. An Indigenous People's Cookbook
Author: Dolly and Annie Watts
Edition and date of publication: 2007
Publisher and Location of publication: Arsenal Press, Vancouver

Synopsis: A Gitskan mother and daughter team from Hazelton share their First Nations' recipes 178 pages

Title: The Journals of William Fraser Tolmie, Physician and Fur Trader
Author: William Tolmie
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1963
Publisher and Location of publication: Mitchell Press, Vancouver

Synopsis: Tolmie was an employee of the HBC and spent time at Fort McLaughlin (Bella Bella) and Fort Simpson during 1834-5. His journal records the abandonment of Fort Nass and the origins of Fort Simpson. Lots of good information about trading with the surrounding First Nations. 406 pages

Title: Marius Barbeau's Photographic Collection: The Nass River
Author: edited by Linda Riley
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1988 Paper No. 109
Publisher and Location of publication: National Museums of Canada, Hull, Quebec

Synopsis: Photographs collected by Barbeau during 1927-29 including villages, houses, totem poles, grave monuments, petroglyphs and pictographs, carving, ritual and custom, and portraits. 195 pages

Title: The Epistles of St. Paul the Apostle to the Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Clossians, Thessalonians, Timothy Titus, and Philemon. and The General Epistles of Sts. James, Peter, John and Jude.
Author: Translated into Zimshian by Bishop William Ridley.
Edition and date of publication: Archival Reprint of the 1898 Limited Edition
Publisher and Location of publication: Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, London

Synopsis: No English except for the title page. 79 pages

Title: A Journey to Alaska in the year 1868: being a diary of the late Emil Teichmann.
Author: Emil Teichmann with an introduction by his son Osker.
Edition and date of publication: Second edition, 1963
Publisher and Location of publication: Argosy- Antiquarian Ltd. New York

Synopsis: As a 21 year old, Teichmann traveled from London to Russian America including three chapters on his stop at Fort Simpson and a meeting with Chief Legaix.

Title: Hamatsa, The Enigma of Cannibalism on the Pacific Northwest Coast.
Author: Jim McDowell.
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1997
Publisher and Location of publication: Ronsdale Press, Vancouver

Synopsis: A scholarly work on the perceptions of early European explorers and First Nation at first contact and the ritual cannibalism among central coast and Vancouver Island First Nations.

Title: The Coming of the Spirit of Pestilence
Author: Robert Boyd.
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1999
Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press, Seattle

Synopsis: A scholarly book about introduced diseases and population decline among Northwest Coast Indians, 1774-1874. 330 pages.

Synopsis: 28 pages of hymns and bible tracts half in English and half In Tsimshian (32 pages)

Title: Indian Legends of Canada
Author: Ella Elizabeth Clark.
Edition and date of publication: Second Edition, 1992
Publisher and Location of publication: McClelland and Stewart Inc., Toronto

Synopsis: A readable selection of myths and stories from across North America including a couple from the Pacific Northwest. (168 Pages.)

Title: William Duncan, founder and developer of Alaska's Metlakatla Christian Mission
Author: Edward Kohlstedt.
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1957
Publisher and Location of publication: Copyright by the Board of Trustees of the William Duncan Trust

Synopsis: The story of William Duncan written by a trustee of the Alaskan Metlakatlan Mission. Lots of photographs and hard To find information including Duncan's will.

Title: Becoming Tsimshian, the Social Life of Names
Author: Christopher Roth.
Edition and date of publication: 2008
Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press, Seattle

Synopsis: Tsimshian names as wealth and names as people. Very difficult vocabulary but full of important information. (220 pages)

Title: A Voyage to the North West Side of North America, The Journals of James Colnett, 1786-1789
Author: Robert Galois.
Edition and date of publication: 2004
Publisher and Location of publication: University of British Columbia, Vancouver

Synopsis: Colnett, a veteran of James Cook's second voyage to North America was an early participant in the sea otter trade. His two vessel expedition was the first to meet the Tsimshian, the Kitkatlas, as well as the Southern Heiltsuk and the first to go ashore on the Southern Charlottes. (404 pages including appendices.)

Title: Smoke From Their Fires, The Life of a Kwakiutl Chief
Author: Clellan S. Ford.
Edition and date of publication: 1968, Second edition
Publisher and Location of publication: Archon Books, Hamden, Connecticut

Synopsis: The life story of a Kwakiutl chief, Charlie Nowell, born in 1870, initiated into the Cannibal Society as a child, living with one foot in the old ways and one foot in the new realities of the early part of the 20th century. Lots of interesting info about potlatching and the Kwakiutl tribes. (248 pages.)

- Title: Moolack: Young Salmon Fisherman
 Author: Mary Worthylake, illustrated by Roy Schroeder.
 Edition and date of publication: 1963, First edition
 Publisher and Location of publication: Melmont Publishers, Chicago
- Synopsis: A children's book about a young Tsimshian boy who builds a canoe with his father and catches the first salmon of the season. Mostly factual and nicely illustrated. (47 pages)
- Title: Heroes of the Cross. David Brainerd-Dr. Wilfred Grenfell-McCullagh and the Red Indians
 Author: None given.
 Edition and date of publication: 3rd edition, 1936
 Publisher and Location of publication: Marshall, Morgan and Scott Ltd. London
 Synopsis: 37 pages of the life of the second Missionary to the Nisga'a (after Thomlinson). (95 pages)
- Title: Indian Petroglyphs of the Pacific Northwest
 Author: Beth and Ray Hill
 Edition and date of publication: 1975 First edition
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press
 Synopsis: 24 pages of Metlakatla Passage, Kikiata and other places on the North Coast. (314 pages)
- Title: A Sketch of the Social Organization of the Nass River Indians
 Author: Edward Sapir
 Edition and date of publication: 1915 First edition
 Publisher and Location of publication: Government Printing Bureau, Ottawa
 Synopsis:
- Title: To Make My Name Good, A Reexamination of the Southern Kwakiutl Potlach
 Author: Philip Drucker and Robert Heizer
 Edition and date of publication: 1967, First edition
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of California Press, Berkeley. (157 pages)
 Synopsis:
- Title: Tsimshian Culture, A Light Through the Ages
 Author: Jay Miller
 Edition and date of publication: 1997, First edition
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of Nebraska Press
 Synopsis: Various articles related to Tsimshian culture.
- Title: Feasting With Mine Enemy: Rank and Exchange Among Northwest Coast Societies
 Author: Abraham Rosman and Paula Rubel
 Edition and date of publication: 1971, First edition
 Publisher and Location of publication: Columbia University Press, New York
 Synopsis: 24 pages specifically on Tsimshian potlatching plus similar chapters on Haida, Tlingit, Bella Coola, and Nootka among others. (219 pages)
- Title: Art of the Northwest Coast Indians
 Author: Robert Inverarity
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1950
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of California Press, Berkeley
 Synopsis: An excellent photo-filled book. (240 pages)

- Title: A Visit To the Tsimshian Indians. The Museum Journal,
Volume X, pages 117-149
- Author: Louis Shortridge
- Edition and date of publication: First edition, September, 1919
- Publisher and Location of publication: Published quarterly by the University Museum
- Synopsis: The author travels up the Skeena past Gitsegukla and Kitwanga and visits Kitsemkalum, Hazelton and Kispiox.
-
- Title: Indians of Canada
- Author: Diamond Jenness
- Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1932
- Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Canada, Ottawa
- Synopsis: An overview of all of the Native Tribes of Canada including the ones on the North Coast. Included linguistic map in mint condition and extra copies of the 7 colour plates. (446 pages)
-
- Title: The World Is As Sharp As a Knife, An Anthology in Honour of Wilson Duff
- Author: Donald Abbott, editor
- Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1981
- Publisher and Location of publication: British Columbia Provincial Museum, Victoria
- Synopsis: A collection of periodical articles concentrating on the North Coast. 341 pages
-
- Title: The Journal of William Sturgis
- Author: William Sturgis
- Edition and date of publication: Reprinted in 1978
- Publisher and Location of publications: Sono Nis Press, Victoria, B.C.
- Synopsis: Sturgis made 4 voyages to the NW Coast trading with the First Nations for sea otter pelts in the first decade of the 18th century. 132 pages
-
- Title: Handbook of North American Indians: Northwest Coast: Volume 7.
- Author: Wayne Suttles, editor
- Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1990
- Publisher and Location of publication: U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.
- Synopsis: Collection of articles and reprints concerning First Nations of the NW Coast, 750 + pages
-
- Title: Ancient Warriors of the North Pacific, The Haidas, Their Laws, Customs and Legends, with some Historical Account of the Queen Charlotte Islands
- Author: Charles Harrison
- Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1925
- Publisher and Location of publication: H. F. & G. Witherby publishers, London
- Synopsis: An account by a missionary who began work at Masset in 1883.

- Title: A Voyage Around the World: But More Particularly To the North-West Coast of America
 Author: George Dixon
 Edition and date of publication: Reprint of a 1789 journal
 Publisher and Location of publication: George Goulding, publisher, London
 Synopsis: The two Captains, Portlock and Dixon (on the King George and Queen Charlotte) made first contact with the Haida on a trading expedition. They traded for over 2500 sea otter pelts including almost 2000 from the Charlottes alone.
- Title: Report on the Queen Charlotte Islands
 Author: George Dawson
 Edition and date of publication: 1878 First edition
 Publisher and Location of publication: Dawson Brothers, Montreal
 Synopsis: Dawson sailed the east and north sides of Haida Gwaii on a geological survey and added many observations, including visiting many villages, in a 70 page paper titled, "On the Haida Indians of Queen Charlotte Islands" 200 pages
- Title: To the Charlottes: George Dawson's 1878 Survey of the Queen Charlotte Islands
 Author: George Dawson, edited by Douglas Cole and Bradley Lockner
 Edition and date of publication: 1993 reprint of an 1878 journal
 Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver
 Synopsis: Reading copy of the above journal
- Title: A Small and Charming World
 Author: John Gibson
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1972
 Publisher and Location of publication: Collins Publishing, Toronto
 Synopsis: Written by an author who worked in the Native Welfare system from Moricetown, Hazelton, the Skeena and the West Coast of Vancouver Island. The blurb says, this is a book to reveal the extent of our lack of knowledge of the people we have wronged. A very enjoyable but realistic read.
- Title: J.B. McCullagh
 Author: Phyllis Matthewman
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1967
 Publisher and Location of publication: Oliphants Ltd, London
 Synopsis: A re-working of "McCullagh and the Red Indians" in the style of rousing missionary work to the heathens. The first missionary to the Nisga'a. (96 pages)
- Title: James Cook, The Journals
 Author: James Cook, prepared from the original manuscripts by J.C. Beaglehole
 Edition and date of publication: First published in 4 volumes between 1955-67
 Publisher and Location of publication: Penguin Books (paperback), London
 Synopsis: Cook makes first contact with the Nuchalnuth People in March/April 1788 at Nootka Sound on his third voyage. This book contains the journals all three of Cook's voyages. (613 pages)

- Title: The Chilkat Dancing Blanket
 Author: Cheryl Samuel
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1982
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of Oklahoma Press
 Synopsis: History, legends, origins, and most importantly, instructions and clear diagrams showing how to weave one of the most valuable artifacts on the entire coast. 228 pages. A great resource to go with Emmons "The Chilkat Blanket" (1907)
- Title: Volume III, Part IV. The Chilkat Blanket
 Author: George Emmons
 Edition and date of publication: First Edition, December, 1907.
 Publisher and Location of publication: American Museum of Natural History, New York
 Synopsis: The authoritative work on the subject including Notes on Blanket Design by Franz Boas 70 pages plus 2 colour prints of blankets and lots of b/w photos.
- Title: 2nd copy of the above book. Volume III, Part IV. The Chilkat Blanket
 Author: George Emmons
 Edition and date of publication: First Edition, December, 1907.
 Publisher and Location of publication: American Museum of Natural History, New York
 Synopsis: The authoritative work on the subject including Notes on Blanket Design by Franz Boas 70 pages plus 2 colour prints of blankets and lots of b/w photos.
- Title: The Basketry of the Tlingit and The Chilkat Blanket
 Author: George Emmons
 Edition and date of publication: Reprint 1993
 Publisher and Location of publication: Sheldon Jackson Museum, Alaska
 Synopsis: Rare reading copy of the above first editions and including the Basketry.
- Title: Simon Fraser, Letters and Journal, 1806 - 1808
 Author: Edited by W. Kaye Lamb
 Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1960
 Publisher and Location of publication: MacMillan Company, Toronto
 Synopsis: The first complete, annotated edition of the letters and journals of Fraser, including many first contacts as he explored New Caledonia and ran the river that bears his name. 283 pages
- Title: The Tlingit Indians. Results of a Trip to the Northwest Coast of America and the Bering Straits
 Author: Aurel Krause
 Edition and date of publication: First English Edition, 1956 (first published in German in 1885)
 Publisher and Location of publication: American Ethnological Society, Washington, D.C.
 Synopsis: The principal source of information on the Tlingit recorded on an expedition in 1880-1881
- Title: The Tlingit Indians. Results of a Trip to the Northwest Coast of America and the Bering Straits. (Reading copy)
 Author: Aurel Krause
 Edition and date of publication: 6th edition, 1989
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press, Seattle
 Synopsis: The principal source of information on the Tlingit recorded on an expedition in 1880-1881

- Title: During My Time, Florence Edanshaw Davidson, A Haida Woman
 Author: Florence Edanshaw Davidson
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1982
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press, Seattle
 Synopsis: The life story of a daughter of a noted carver and chief, Charles Edenshaw. Florence was born in 1896.
- Title: The Imaginary Indian, The Images of the Indian in Canadian Culture
 Author: Daniel Francis
 Edition and date of publication: 5th printing, 1997
 Publisher and Location of publication: Arsenal Pulp Press, Vancouver
 Synopsis: The appropriation of native culture by white Canadians. An easy, enjoyable read.
- Title: Indian Villages of Southeast Alaska
 Author: Herbert Krieger
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1928
 Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D.C.
 Synopsis: Good overview of Tlingit culture, 27 pages plus 16 photographic plates.
- Title: Celebration, Tlingit, Haida, Tsimshian. Dancing on the Land
 Author: Rosita Worl
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 2008
 Publisher and Location of publication: Sealaska Heritage Institute, Juneau, Alaska
 Synopsis: A huge celebration of Alaskan First Nations was held in Juneau in 2007. This is a coffee table book of costumes, regalia, dancing, masks, etc.
- Title: Haida Carvers in Argillite
 Author: Marius Barbeau
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1957
 Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Canada, Ottawa
 Synopsis: The master slate carvers of the Haida and the legends that the argillite poles depict.(page 214)
- Title: Haida Myths Illustrated in Argillite Carvings
 Author: Marius Barbeau
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1953
 Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Canada, Ottawa
 Synopsis: Many myths of the north coast, not all are Haida. Some are Tsimshian, Nisga'a and others (417 pages)
- Title: Metlakathla, Alaska Church Manuel (sic) (1887)
 Author: William Duncan
 Edition and date of publication: reprint
 Publisher and Location of publication: Kessinger Publishing
 Synopsis: 28 pages of hymns and bible tracts half in English and half in Tsimshian. (32 pages)
- Title: The Sea Runners
 Author: Ivan Doig
 Edition and date of publication: Canadian First Edition paperback, 1982
 Publisher and Location of publication: McClelland and Stewart Ltd., Toronto
 Synopsis: 4 men escape from Russian Alaska and paddle a Tlingit canoe to Washington State. A novel set in 1853; a good read.

Title: Peoples of the Northwest Coast, Their Archeology and Prehistory
Author: Ames and Maschner
Edition and date of publication: First paperback edition, 2000
Publisher and Location of publication: Thames and Hudson, London
Synopsis: A textbook with a great overview of the cultures of the coast.

Title: The Indian Tribes of Canada
Author: Eileen Jenness
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1933
Publisher and Location of publication: Ryerson Press, Toronto
Synopsis: A dated summary of the tribes of Canada including a chapter on the Pacific Coast. (123 pages)

Title: Aboriginal Slavery on the Northwest Coast of North America
Author: Leland Donald
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1997
Publisher and Location of publication: University of California Press, Berkeley
Synopsis: (338 pages)

Title: Scenes and Studies of a Savage Life
Author: Gilbert Sproat
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1868
Publisher and Location of publication: Smith and Elder pub. London
Synopsis: Ethnology of the Nootka and the other tribes of the west coast of Vancouver Island.

Title: The Central and Northern Nootka
Author: Drucker
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1951
Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute. Bureau of Ethnology, Bulletin 144
Synopsis: 457 pages

Title: William Duncan of Metlakatla, A Victorian Missionary in British Columbia
Author: Jean Usher
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1974
Publisher and Location of publication: National Museum of Canada, Ottawa
Synopsis: A good primary source about Duncan with lots of good info gleaned from letters between the principals. 135 pages.

Title: Potlatch at Gitsegukla
Author: Field notes of William Beynon, ed. By Marjorie Halpin
Edition and date of publication: 2nd edition, 2008
Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver
Synopsis: The most complete recording of a Gitskan potlatch held over 5 days at Gitsegukla in 1945, 250 pages

Title: People of Kitselas, Preserving Inland Ts'imshian. Ancient Voice of the Kitselas Ts'imshian
Author: Debbie Moore editor plus elders
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 2009
Publisher and Location of publication: Kitselas Band Council
Synopsis: Reference book of Inland Tsimshian vocabulary

Title: Discovered Lands Invented Pasts, Transforming Visions of the American West
Author: Jules Prown et. al.
Edition and date of publication: 1992
Publisher and Location of publication: Yale Press, Connecticut
Synopsis: The vanishing Indian of the American experience analyzed through painting and sculpture, 217 pages

Title: The Encyclopedia of Raincoast Place Names, a Complete Reference to Coastal British Columbia
Author: Andrew Scott
Edition and date of publication: 2009
Publisher and Location of publication: Harbour Publishing
Synopsis: The first revision of Walbran's "British Columbia Place Names 1592-1906". Lots of history of the coast including many references to First Nations' history.

Title: The Heavens Are Changing. Nineteenth-Century Protestant Missions and Tsimshian Christianity
Author: Susan Neylan
Edition and date of publication: 2003
Publisher and Location of publication: McGill-Queens University Press, Montreal
Synopsis: The conflict between the missionaries and the Tsimshian world view is explored from both points of view.

Title: Spruce Root Basketry of the Alaska Tlingit
Author: Frances Paul
Edition and date of publication: 2nd edition, 1991
Publisher and Location of publication: Friends of the Sheldon Jackson Museum, Juneau
Synopsis: A reprint of a 1944 book written by an expert Tlingit weaver.

Title: Canada on the Pacific; Being an Account of a Journey From Edmonton to the Pacific by the Peace River Valley.
Author: Charles Horetzky
Edition and date of publication: First Edition, 1874
Publisher and Location of publication: Dawson Brothers, Montreal
Synopsis: Horetzky was helping survey the Canadian National Railway's route to the Pacific. Lots of information and observations about the Indian Tribes of B.C. He traveled the Skeena River and hiked the grease trail from Kitwanga to the Nass, then canoed to Fort Simpson. (244 pages)

Title: Indian Life on the Northwest Coast of North American: As seen by the early explorers and fur traders during the last decades of the eighteenth century.
Author: Erna Gunther
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1972
Publisher and Location of publication: University of Chicago Press, Chicago
Synopsis: 277 pages

Title: Potlatch
Author: George Clutesi
Edition and date of publication: 4th, 1973
Publisher and Location of publication: Gray's Publishing, Sidney, B.C.
Synopsis: A first hand account of a Kwakiutl potlatch told in story form

- Title: Art in the Life of the Northwest Coast Indian
 Author: Erna Gunther
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1966
 Publisher and Location of publication: Portland Art Museum, Portland, Oregon
 Synopsis: A review of the Rasmussen Collection with many additions by George Emmons
- Title: Gunboat Frontier British Maritime Authority and Northwest Coast Indians 1846-1890
 Author: Barry Gough
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1984
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of British Columbia, Vancouver
 Synopsis:
- Title: Indian Rock Carvings of the Pacific Northwest
 Author: Edward Meade
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1971
 Publisher and Location of publication: Gray's Publishing Ltd., Sidney, B.C.
 Synopsis:
- Title: Tangible Visions: Northwest Coast Indian Shamanism and Its Art
 Author: Allen Wardwell
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1996
 Publisher and Location of publication: The Monacelli Press, New York
 Synopsis: An incredible book filled with unique photos and hundreds of examples of shamanic and Northwest Coast art. (329 pages)
- Title: Images From the Likeness House
 Author: Dan Savard
 Edition and date of publication: 2010
 Publisher and Location of publication: Royal B.C. Museum
 Synopsis: Lots of good old photos
- Title: Copying People – 1860-1940
 Author: Daniel Francis
 Edition and date of publication: 1996
 Publisher and Location of publication: Fifth House, Calgary
 Synopsis: Lots of good old photos
- Title: Northwest Coast Native Indian Art, "Learning By Doing"
 Author: Karin Clark and Jim Gilbert
 Edition and date of publication: 1987
 Publisher and Location of publication: Self published
 Synopsis:
- Title: Fieldiana, Emmons's Notes on Field Museum's Collection of Northwest Coast Basketry
 Author: Emmons
 Edition and date of publication: reprint 1986
 Publisher and Location of publication:
 Synopsis:
- Title: Stone, Bone, Antler, and Shell, Artifacts of the Northwest Coast
 Author: Hillary Stewart
 Edition and date of publication:
 Publisher and Location of publication:
 Synopsis:

- Title: Carving the Western Path, By River, Rail, and Road Through Central and Northern B.C.
 Author: R.G. Harvey
 Edition and date of publication:
 Publisher and Location of publication:
 Synopsis:
- Title: Pioneer Legacy Chronicles of the Lower Skeena Rive Vol. II
 Author: Norma Bennett
 Edition and date of publication:
 Publisher and Location of publication:
 Synopsis:
- Title: Historical Maps of Canada
 Author: Michael Swift
 Edition and date of publication:
 Publisher and Location of publication:
 Synopsis:
- Title: The Tahltan Indians
 Author: George Emmons
 Edition and date of publication: First, 1911
 Publisher and Location of publication: University Museum, Philadelphia
 Synopsis: The best ethnology of the Tahltan by a sometimes maligned author.
- Title: Comparative Vocabularies of the Indian Tribes of British Columbia
 Author: William Tolmie and George Dawson
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1884
 Publisher and Location of publication: Dawson Brothers, Montreal
 Synopsis: Dictionary translations of many terms including Tsimshian, Chinook, and English with map of languages of B.C. (127 p)
- Title: Canadian Savage Folk
 Author: John MacLean
 Edition and date of publication: 1st ed., 1898
 Publisher and Location of publication: William Briggs pub. Toronto (641 pp)
 Synopsis:
- Title: British Columbia Totem Poles
 Author: W.A. Newcombe
 Edition and date of publication: 1931
 Publisher and Location of publication: reprinted from Provincial Museum Report, 1930
 Synopsis: 8 pp of text and 9 plates
- Title: Totem Poles. A Recent Native Art of the Northwest Coast of America
 Author: Marius Barbeau
 Edition and date of publication: 1931
 Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.
 Synopsis: 11 pp of text and 6 plates
- Title: The Hydah Indians of the Queen Charlotte's Isles, British Columbia
 Author: James Swan
 Edition and date of publication: 1st ed., 1874
 Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C.
 Synopsis: Includes a description of their carvings, tattoo designs, etc. 11 pp of texts and 7 plates

- Title: The Wolf Ritual on the Northwest Coast
 Author: Alice Ernst
 Edition and date of publication: 1st ed., 1952
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of Oregon, Eugene
 Synopsis:
- Title: A History of Prince George
 Author: Rev. Runnalls
 Edition and date of publication: 1st edition, 1946
 Publisher and Location of publication:
 Synopsis: Good info about the early days of the interior fur trade
- Title: Death Feast I Dimlahamid
 Author: Terry Glavin
 Edition and date of publication: 1990
 Publisher and Location of publication: New Star Books, Vancouver
 Synopsis: The Delgamuukw trial as seen by people in Hazelton
- Title: Our Box Was Full, an Ethnology of the Delgamuukw Plaintiffs Author: Richard Daly
 Edition and date of publication: 2005
 Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver
 Synopsis:
- Title: The Private Journal of Captain G.H. Richards, The Vancouver Island Survey (1860-1862)
 Author: ed. Linda Dorricott and Deidre Cullon
 Edition and date of publication: 2012
 Publisher and Location of publication: Ronsdale, Vancouver
 Synopsis:
- Title: Listening to Our Ancestors, The Art of Native Life Along the North Pacific Coast.
 Author:
 Edition and date of publication: 2006
 Publisher and Location of publication: Smithsonian Institute.
 Synopsis:
- Title: The Many Voyages of Arthur Wellington Clah
 Author: Peggy Brock
 Edition and date of publication: 2011
 Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver
 Synopsis: A partial analysis of the life-long diary of Clah.
- Title: The Reminiscences of Doctor John Helmcken
 Author: edited by Dorothy Smith
 Edition and date of publication: 1975
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of British Columbia Press, Vancouver
 Synopsis: The life and times of the HBC's surgeon stationed at Fort Rupert and Victoria.
- Title: Early Indian Village Churches
 Author: John Veillette and Gary White
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1977
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of British Columbia Press, Vancouver
 Synopsis: Includes all of the churches on the North Coast

- Title: Frontier Forts & Posts of the Hudson's Bay Company (during the fur trade and gold rush period)
 Author: Kenneth E. Perry
 Edition and date of publication: 2006
 Publisher and Location of publication: Hancock House
 Synopsis: Very incorrect information about Fort Simpson
- Title: The Ghostland People, A Documentary History of the Queen Charlotte Islands 1858-1906
 Author: Charles Lillard, editor
 Edition and date of publication: 1989
 Publisher and Location of publication: Sono Niis
 Synopsis: First hand accounts of early Haida Gwaii visitors
- Title: Winged Canoes at Nootka, and other stories of the evergreen coast.
 Author: Pamela Stephen
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1955
 Publisher and Location of publication: J.M. Dent, Vancouver
 Synopsis: 24 vignettes of the Northwest Coast and Gitksan Territory
- Title: Gathering What the Great Nature Provided, Food Traditions of the Gitksan
 Authors: The people of the Gitksan, drawings by Hillary Stewart
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1980
 Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas & McIntyre
 Synopsis: Cooking, preserving, and storing fish, meat, berries, fruit, tubers, oolichan, among others.
- Title: The Transforming Image, Painted Arts of the Northwest Coast First Nations
 Author: Bill McLennan and Karen Duffek
 Edition and date of publication: First, 2002
 Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas and McIntyre and University of Washington
 Synopsis: Great resource for 2-D art and photos
- Title: The Totem Pole, an Intercultural History
 Author: Jonaitis and Glass
 Edition and date of publication: First, 2010
 Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas and McIntyre, Vancouver
 Synopsis: An insider's view to many culturally significant events in many First Nations of the coast and lots of historically significantly photos.
- Title: Histories, Territories, and Laws of the Kitwanoocool.
 Author: Wilson Duff, editor
 Edition and date of publication: First, 1969
 Publisher and Location of publication: British Columbian Provincial Museum
 Synopsis: In the words of the Chiefs. Good adaawxs, not much about crests.
- Title: A Tour of Duty in the Pacific Northwest. E.A. Porcher and the H.M.S. Sparrowhawk, 1865-1868
 Author: Edited by Dwight Smith
 Edition and date of publication: 2000
 Publisher and Location of publication: University of Alaska Press, Fairbanks
 Synopsis: One of the important warships and Gunboat Diplomacy

Title: An Account of a Voyage to the Northwest Coast of America in 1785 and 1786
Author: Edited by Robin Fisher and J.M. Bumstead
Edition and date of publication: 1982
Publisher and Location of publication: Douglas and McIntyre, Vancouver
Synopsis: The diary of one of the first fur traders to land at Nootka after Captain Cook.

Title: Guests Never Leave Hungry, the Autobiography of James Sewid, a Kwakiutl Indian
Author: edited by James Spradley
Edition and date of publication: 1969
Publisher and Location of publication: Yale University Press, New Haven
Synopsis: Interesting sections about being initiated into the hamatsa society and the beginnings of Alert Bay.

Title: I Heard the Owl Call My Name
Author: Margaret Craven
Edition and date of publication: 3rd, 1968
Publisher and Location of publication: Harrap, London
Synopsis: A warm novel of interest to anyone who has spent one or two years living on a reserve, in this case, Kingcome Inlet.

Title: Simon Peter Gunanoot, Trapline Outlaw
Author: David Ricardo Williams
Edition and date of publication: First, 1982
Publisher and Location of publication: Sono Nis Press, Victoria
Synopsis: A recounting of murder, intrigue and the law in Gitksan territory in the 1910's.

Title: Spruce Root Basketry of the Haida and Tlingit
Author: Sharon Busby
Edition and date of publication: 2003
Publisher and Location of publication: University of Washington Press, Seattle
Synopsis: Beautifully photographed and researched coffee table book and much more. Examples include the re-making of a 6,000 root basket. 156 pp.

Title: Sky Man on the Totem Pole?
Author: Christie Harris
Edition and date of publication:
Publisher and Location of publication:
Synopsis:

Title: Mythology of the Bella Coola Indians, The Jesup North Pacific Expedition.
Author: Franz Boas
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1898
Publisher and Location of publication: American Museum of Natural History, Washington.
Synopsis:

Title: Tlingit Woman's Spruce Basket
Author: Louis Shortridge
Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1920
Publisher and Location of publication: Univ. Of Pennsylvania Museum Journal
Synopsis: A well written work by an early, highly educated Tlingit.

- Title: The Tlingit Indians
 Author: George Emmons
 Edition and date of publication: Second edition, 1991
 Publisher and Location of publication: American Museum of Natural History, Univ. of Washington Press.
 Synopsis: A huge work of over 450 pages to add to Niblack's about the First People of Southeast Alaska.
- Title: David Salosaltan
 Author: Rev. Thomas Crosby
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1906
 Publisher and Location of publication: Dept of Missionary Literature of the Methodist Church, Canada
 Synopsis: A brief story of Crosby's first native convert in the Fraser Valley, a young man who died at 19 years of age. 62 pages.
- Title: The Wolf and the Raven
 Author: Viola Garfield and Linn Forrest
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1948
 Publisher and Location of publication: Univ. of Washington, Seattle
 Synopsis: Excellent inventory of the South East Alaska totem poles with related story.
- Title: The Whale House at Chilkat by George Emmons and In the Time That Was by J. Frederic Throne
 Author:
 Edition and date of publication: Reprint of a 1916 article by Emmons
 Publisher and Location of publication: Book printed-on-demand
 Synopsis:
- Title: Cataline, Packer Extraordinaire
 Author: Trelle Morrow
 Edition and date of publication: 2013
 Publisher and Location of publication: Self-published by Talisman Publications, Prince George
 Synopsis: The first, greatest, and last of the packers had mules trains and Covered many native trails in over 50 years.
- Title: The Tsimshian and Their Neighbours of the North Pacific Coast.
 Author: editors Jay Miller and Carol Eastman
 Edition and date of publication: First edition, 1984
 Publisher and Location of publication: Univ. of Washington Press, Seattle
 Synopsis: 14 Anthropologists discuss various aspects of the First Nations of the North Coast. Good archival pictures.
- Title: The Ecological Indian: Myth and History
 Author: Shepard Krech III
 Edition and date of publication: First, 1999
 Publisher and Location of publication: W.W. Norton and Co. New York
 Synopsis: Post contact analysis of the effects of colonialism On North American Natives.
- Title: Captured Heritage. The Scramble for Northwest Coast Artifacts
 Author: Douglas Cove
 Edition and date of publication: 1985, trade paperback
 Publisher and Location of publication: U.B.C. Press, Vancouver
 Synopsis: Cove covers the big collectors like Emmons and Newcombe as well as their ethnologists like Boas.